Description:

From the breathtakingly beautiful to the just plain weird, the modern art world excites, challenges, sparks debate, and also offends. This is the definitive accompaniment to the events, movements, personalities, and works that have had the greatest impact on 20th century art—from Neo-Dada to Abstract Expressionism, and from Edouard Manet to Tracey Emin. Written by a wide selection of internationally-recognized critics, academics and artists, this informative yet accessible guide to the sometimes seemingly inaccessible world of art history brings the works of the last century to life. With more than 250 fantastic images to learn from, even beginners will soon find themselves coming to grips with challenging ideas and gaining a new-found appreciation for the works themselves.

This book feels well bound and heavy with glossy/waxy pages which feel good. I have used this book to learn art by using it as an index. Each page has is generally divided into two landscape areas of writing about an event, person or artwork. In some cases, the opposing whole page is filled with the picture of the artwork, venue or person discussed in one of the sections of the preceeding page. However, discussion are often just a highlight. In some other cases, when discussing a pice of key work the actual pictures of such key work is not shown. Armed with this book, a search engine and patience I have been able to learn a great deal of art. Finally, the book is portable enough that I keep it hidden at work and open it up at every chance I get. I paid 4 doll. at Borders discount book section in 2010.
